Substantive information obtained from interview

Willow is McKenzie's little sister. She just turned 16. She says McKenzie was a great big brother and was very good to her. Their mother was high on drugs and would often leave them alone. McKenzie would always make sure Willow had something to eat. McKenzie cooked for her or took her to McDonalds. McKenzie used to mop and wash clothes at the house.

Willow never met McKenzie's dad. She heard he was in prison. Willow's dad was killed when he tried to evade arrest for drunk driving and crashed his car into a telephone pole.

Willow and McKenzie also have a brother named Martin. Martin's dad and grandmother are very nice. Sometimes Willow got invited to spend holidays with them. McKenzie did not get invited to go.

Willow and McKenzie used to play computer games together and watch TV. They both liked American Idol.

Willow was very shocked by the crime. McKenzie was a football star and a lot of girls talked to him. He was very popular.

Georgiana Starlington was a friend of McKenzie's. Clayton Pickle was a bully.

Willow thinks her brother is very smart. He was always very neat and dressed nice. He liked to look sharp.
